

R. W. Vice Construction, L.L.C.
6801 Hatfield St.
Moss Point, Ms 39562
Ph: 228-219-4017
Fax: 228-475-0192

Founded in 1998, R. W. Vice Construction, L.L.C., is a Residential, Commercial, Industrial Developer and Builder. Our mission is to use the best practices for construction to improve communities while maintaining safe impacts on the environment.

R. W. Vice Construction is located in Moss Point, Mississippi:

- Mississippi Building Construction License
- Member of Southeast Mississippi Home Builder's Association
- Maintains Workers Compensation and General Liability

Construction services offered:

- Land Clearing – Residential, Commercial, Industrial
- Site Utilities
- Roadways
- Buildings – Residential, Commercial, and Industrial
- Parking Lots
- Public and Private Boat Ramps
- Foundations – Residential, Commercial, and Heavy Industrial
- Piling and Bulkheads
- Lakes and Ponds
- Demolition and Clean-up
- Industrial Capital Projects
- Industrial Maintenance Services

Recent Projects Completed:

- Fort Bayou Parking
- Biloxi Lighthouse Parking and Boat Ramp
- Bay View Drive Boat Ramp
- Russell Residence: Land clearing and two lakes
- Flurry Residence: Land clearing and new home construction
- L. L. Vice Residence: Home renovation
- API Aztec: Total building renovation. Concrete foundations, Structural Steel Building, Bridge Crane Replacement. Have contracted here for the past 7 years.
- Quave Fabrication: One new building constructed and one building renovated
- Koch Cellulose Paper Mill: New pump foundations, tank foundation and concrete paving – Capital Project
- Land Cleaning, site utilities, and new parking lot for Pascagoula Schools

Current Projects:

- Land clearing , 72 Acre site – Vancleave
- Breland Residence – 5000 SF home addition: demolition and repair

Owner Bio:

Prior to starting R. W. Vice Construction, Robert Vice started his career as an equipment operator and carpenter on commercial, residential and industrial jobs for several years building schools, naval bases, airports, hospitals, etc. before moving into supervisor/management positions. Robert served as Superintendent for Stewart Construction building new schools and renovating hospitals. Robert also served as Operations Manager for Fluor Enterprises for ten years. He was head of the Civil Department. His duties included planning, scheduling, field engineering, estimating and supervising up to 50 people on different projects. Roberts work experience while at Chevron Refinery in Pascagoula, Ms. included New Capitol Projects, Expansion Projects, routine maintenance, earthwork, piling, utilities, heavy concrete construction, new building structures, cabinet shop, and custodial services.

Lisa Vice worked for several engineering firms with duties including surveying, soil delineation, and CAD drafting. Lisa worked as an office manager for eight years and holds a degree in court reporting.

Statistics:

Through careful planning and quality controlled construction, R. W. Vice Construction has successfully completed every project on time and in accordance.